Grenada, January 2010: Now it gets easier to take a great vacation to Grenada, one of the most picturesque of the Windward Islands and Wreck Dive Capital of the Caribbean. From July 3rd Delta Airlines will provide nonstop service every Saturday, reaching the Isle of Spice in just 5 hours nonstop service.

True Blue Bay resort and Aquanauts are offering a Delta Special 7 nights stay inclusive continental breakfast buffet, airport round trip transfer, 5 days of 2 tank morning dives and all taxes. The resort offers two pools, boutique, restaurant and bar, all rooms command a view of the south coast. The Aquanauts dive center is just steps from the rooms and provides daily dive trips and courses.

Grenada's diving is famous for its portfolio of great wrecks, best known is the "Bianca C"; a cruise liner which sank in 1961. But Grenada is not only heaven for wreck & technical divers, but also for the recreational diver seeking the abundance of marine life housed by Grenada's reefs. The island offers many activities for non diving spouses with its natural lush green beauty, waterfalls, rainforest and historic sites. Grenada with its friendly people is the ideal place for relaxed and safe vacation.
